ProAct Safety to Discuss Common Problems with Safety Strategy at National Safety Council Congress

Shawn Galloway has been selected to present a technical session at NSC Congress, the world's largest annual event for safety, health and environmental professionals.

(The Woodlands, Texas – March 2, 2021) ProAct Safety, a recognized pioneer of leadership and safety excellence strategies, announced the company's president, Shawn M. Galloway, will lead a session at the NSC Congress and Expo. The conference will take place virtually on March 3-5.

In Galloway's session, titled "Overcoming 10 Common Problems with Safety Strategy," he will review the problems organizations need to overcome to improve both their safety planning and execution. This session is scheduled on 4 March at 12pm CST.

If business strategy is still an evolving concept, safety strategy has a long way to go to reach extreme levels of effectiveness. Based on research reviewing over 300 corporate to site-specific safety strategies, there were ten common problems found in most company safety strategies. This presentation outlines these issues, and details how to spot, prevent and overcome them. Attendees will receive frameworks that will allow them to return and immediately begin taking steps to improve their strategy and execution. It is time to rethink and fix your safety strategy through this talk full of practical examples.
