

ProAct Safety Gains International Exposure at Partners in Prevention in Toronto!

The Woodlands, TX April 22, 2010 – ProAct Safety is proud to announce the addition of Shawn M. Galloway, President and COO, to Canadian Occupational Safety Magazine's columnists.

"Editor's note: Beginning this month, Canadian Occupational Safety is adding another talent to its roster of columnists. Shawn Galloway, international speaker and professional safety coach, will draw from his experiences to provide readers with valuable insights towards achieving safety culture excellence."

At Partners in Prevention in Mississauga, Ontario, ProAct Safety is proud to be offering the conference session "Teaching Supervisors to be Safety Coaches" on Wednesday, May 5, 2010 at 2:45pm in the Vela C room. Staff will also be available in booth #141. Attendees may drop their card to receive a complimentary web seminar.

Since January of 2008, ProAct Safety has delivered weekly podcasts as a resource to safety professionals. Hosted by Shawn M. Galloway, the Safety Culture Excellence podcast has grown into a successful, widely-used tool. Now with thousands of weekly subscribers around the world and over 125 episodes in 30 topic categories, it is one of the most popular safety podcast offered via iTunes.

ProAct Safety offers additional advanced safety resources (articles, newsletter, on-demand webinars, videos, etc.) at no cost that can be found at www.ProActSafety.com/Insights
