Shawn Galloway to Present at ASSP's Safety 2024 Conference in Denver

Safety leadership and strategy expert will discuss the capacities needed to achieve safety excellence.

(Houston, TX – July 17, 2024) ProAct Safety, a recognized pioneer of leadership and safety excellence strategies, announced that the company's CEO, Shawn M. Galloway, has been selected to present at the prestigious American Society of Safety Professionals (ASSP) Safety 2024 conference in August. The event will be held at the Colorado Convention Center in Denver and will feature a diverse range of industry experts and thought leaders.

Session #6043 Thursday, August 8 (3-4p)

During his session, Galloway will discuss "Building the Five Core Capacities for Safety Excellence." This essential discussion will provide valuable insights into the foundational pillars necessary for organizations to adapt and excel in today's fast-paced and ever-evolving business environment. Galloway will draw from real-world case studies across various industries, offering practical guidance on implementing and fortifying the five crucial capacities required for sustainable safety excellence: system, leadership, engagement, culture, and strategy.
